

Biography

Ms Monia Chouari Jerfel (PhD in English Literature from Universities of Sousse and Bourgogne).

- A Training of Trainers Certificate from World Learning Graduate Institute, Washington DC.
- Teaching British and American Literature with an emphasis on pedagogical methods of teaching and theoretical approaches to literary criticism.
- Various presentations in international conferences and study days about the controversial issues within the interdisciplinary research field of Women's Studies.

Titles of published articles are:

- 1- "Work as a Therapy in Sartor Resartus" (Psychoanalytical Approach)
- 2- "Paradox of Memory in Past and Present" (New Historicism & Cultural Materialism)
- 3- "The Supremacy of the Invisible" (Cultural Studies)
- 4- "Gaskell's Assessment of Victorian Values" (Socialist Feminism and Gender Studies)

Forthcoming Publications:

- 5- Breaking with Biological Determinism (Feminism and Gender Studies)
- 6- Women's Veil and the Quest for Identity (Psychoanalytic Feminist Approach)
- 7- Education and Women's Empowerment in Victorian Fiction (Marxism and Gender Studies)
- 8- Women and Leadership: Gender, Diplomacy and Decision-making Positions Policies.
- 9- Anarchy is a Path towards Reconsidering Power Relations in North and South (April 2017)

Today:

- 10- "Rewriting the Myth of Femininity and Chastity"